

SUE BARSAMIAN ENGINEERING FACULTY and STAFF AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE IN DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

- ELIGIBILITY A nominee must be a full-time faculty or staff member in the Carl R. Ice College of Engineering at Kansas State University.
- NATURE OF AWARD The award will be publicly announced Fall 2023, during the College of Engineering Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Summit. The recipient will receive a plaque and cash award of $4,000.
- CRITERIA FOR NOMINATION Nomination criteria include one or more of the following:
1. Outstanding teaching in courses that cover cultural competency and diversity or courses that have material integrating and highlighting accomplishments by historically under-represented groups in engineering (For this award the term ‘historically under-represented’ will be interpreted broadly to include any group under-represented or excluded in the field of engineering or at Kansas State University. For example Asian American students are not underrepresented in the field of engineering at the national level but have been underrepresented in the College of Engineering here.)
 2. Outstanding contributions in developing an educational program for historically under-represented students or the college community that supports the well-being of historically under-represented students and/or provides a positive climate for diversity and inclusion
 3. Outstanding efforts in recruiting historically under-represented students
 4. Outstanding efforts to retain and mentor historically under-represented students
 5. Unique and highly impactful research, creative inquiry or programs directed toward historically under-represented students
- APPLICATIONS All full-time College of Engineering faculty and staff are eligible for this award. Nomination must be provided by current K-State faculty, students, staff or administrators. Deadline date for completed applications/ nominations is 5:00 p.m., Monday, May 8, 2023.
